

CURRICULUM VITAE

Alissa V. Tolstokorova

Research degree: PhD

Academic rank: Associate Professor

Institution: International School of Equal Opportunities, Kyiv

Position: Research expert

Currently is an expert in gender issues, provide research expertise to International School for Equal Opportunities (ISEO) in Kyiv. Previously held positions of a Director of the Centre for Research on Family and Gender at the State Institute for Family and Youth Development of the Ministry of Ukraine on Family, Youth and Sports; a senior researcher at the Gender Studies Centre at the State Institute for Family and Youth; a project coordinator in gender policy development in projects of the Ukrainian Institute for Social Research in Kyiv, etc.

Recipient of international scholarships for research and teaching in Gender /Women's Studies and Social Sciences from Erasmus Mundus Scholars Program (Oldenburg University, Germany, 2011), ERSTE Foundation (Austria, Vienna, 2010-2011), Slovenská akademická informačná agentúra (SAIA) (Comenius University, Slovak Republic, 2008), Swedish Institute (Stockholm University, Sweden, 2004-2005), British Government Chevening Scholarship (University of Leeds, UK, 2003-2004) and US Department of State, Fulbright Junior Faculty Development Scholarship (George Mason University, USA, 1999-2000). Received short-term training in Gender/ Women's Studies and Social Sciences in Italy (2001, 2007), Germany (2008, 2006, 2005), Bulgaria (2008), Czech Republic (2007), USA (2004), Kazakhstan (2003), Slovenia (2001).

Member of 15 international professional associations and networks. Made paper presentations at over 40 international seminars, workshops, conferences, congresses and symposia. Author of over 150 publications in Ukrainian, Russian, English, German, French, Turkish and Croatian languages.